Burgeoning Spring

May 2015

Dear Charles,

I don't know about you, but I had a great time at our International Sculpture Day event! What is better than a party that celebrates sculpture?

We want to make this yearly event into a big thing. It is really good to have ISC advertising helping to promote our sculpture and sculpture events.

This newsletter includes a summary of several of our events for IS Day. If you had an ISDay event that wasn't included, let us know for the next newsletter.

Thank you to all who volunteered their help in making IS Day a success. Speaking of volunteering, most PRS members have listed their areas of volunteer interest. But perhaps you haven't heard back from us in a timely manner ... or at all? Your leadership team is now working to improve our volunteer coordination and your participation will be much appreciated.

Would you be interested in a list of indoor and outdoor spaces that want sculpture? Let's compile such a list so we can more easily get our works out into the world. Your suggestions can help us all!

Your President,
Anya Sophe Behn

Patricia Bengton-Jones and Kati Casida, two of the co-founders of Pacific Rim Sculptors, drove to Stinson Beach, where Claudia Chapline hosted a brown bag lunch in her eponymous gallery's sculpture garden. Patricia, Kati, Claudia, Philip and Chad Glasshoff, and Guiseppe Palumbo (sculpture below, left) enjoyed conversations about their sculptures and reminiscing about the early days of PRS.

Kati Casida then returned home to open the doors of her studio to several guests, including professors from entomology, chemistry, and ethnic arts.

At Studio One, in Oakland, several PRS members spent the evening in an outburst of creativity constructing sculptures from found objects. Participants had the following comments:

A wonderful event, hearing about the work of others . . . then creativity let loose. -- Ellen Coffey

I had a lot of fun playing with you all. Great time meeting and working with fellow sculptors. It was fun making work as a duo with various impulses and skills. The 15-minute time restriction made for some spontaneous creations that took me out of my planning head and into my hands. Refreshing! -- Eileen Fitz-Faulkner

Fantastically rousing good time with talented and excellent sculptors. Making fast sculptures in teams with random materials was a wonderful way to celebrate International Sculpture Day. -- Anya Sophe Behn

I had a great time talking, eating, and making art. Our outburst of creativity was a pleasure! Thank you Anya and Kate for all your organizing and Eileen for all your stuff! -- Pam Dernham

In a combined IS Day plus San Francisco Open Studios Charles Stinson's show BAMBOO (detail below) was visited by over 900 people. The show featured 19 works created from or influenced by bamboo, including three bronzes. The show included a silent auction, which raised funds to benefit San Francisco's ArtSpan, Pacific Rim Sculptors, and the International Sculpture Center, sponsor of IS Day.

Irma Vega Binou did a pop-up exhibition at Tilden Park (below), with exhibition of works and group participation in creating new works in clay.

Rebecca Fox hosted a reception in her metal sculpture studio, with IS Day coinciding with her Spring Open Studios at Islais Creek Studios in San Francisco,

ISC News

International Sculpture Day

ISC's new celebration of sculpture on April 24 was a rousing success, with exhibitions, demonstrations and activities around the world.

ISC Website

Sculpture.org is a great resource; add photos of your works yearly for review by collectors, gallerists, curators, and corporate buyers. Also check out the Insider section of Sculpture magazine.

ISC New Frontiers in Sculpture, Phoenix, AZ, November 4-7, 2015

Plan to attend the next ISC Conference, focusing on Creative Placemaking, Art on the Borders, Socially Engaged Art Practice, and more (see sculpture.org/az2015).

Upcoming PRS Exhibitions

- DISRUPTION, a curated show of works by members of ISC Chapters, will open at Grounds for Sculpture in New Jersey on October 24, 2015 and continue through April 23

Jersey on October 24, 2015 and continue through April 20, 2016; a tour of the show is under consideration.

- MAGIC CARPET RIDE, coordinated by Kati Casida and Leitha Thrall, opens September 22, 2015 in Athens, Greece, and continues through October 24, 2015.

Member News

Welcome New Members

Tay Elizabeth Gersbach of Oakland, CA, attended California College of the Arts. She creates sculpture and sonic pieces from found materials. She currently teaches 4-12 year olds how to make musical instruments in Berkeley, CA. Her website is taygersbachart.virb.com.

Berkeley Art Party!

Don't miss this regular monthly 2nd Friday event, featuring works by four different artists and live music. For exhibiting artists this requires minimal time investment: set-up and take-down are the same evening. Participants are asked to contribute towards food and beverages and tips for performers in lieu of fees or commissions. Leitha Thrall (image below) was a recent PRS participant.

This is a fun, community-building event in a 2200 square foot, well-known venue that has a large email list. Email B. Stevens Strauss for details:

Members Offering or Seeking . . .

Patricia Bengston Jones is offering one or more studio spaces for rent. The space has Open Studio the first Saturday of each month. Call her at 510-849-3534 for more information.

Patricia Bengston Jones is offering stone carving classes in her studio at 2019 2nd Street in Berkeley, CA. The classes are on Tuesdays, 6:30-9:00 PM and cost $175. Hand tools, sandpaper, files, and several small kinds of stone will be available; individuals need to provide their own personal protective eye glasses. Call 510-849-3534 to reserve your space.

Lynne Todaro says that her school has sent its brand new Pacific Kiln Company's deluxe ceramic shell mixer (left) to the state surplus website to be auctioned off. The mixer, which has never been used, has stainless steel tanks and holds 90 gallons of materials. Go to www.publicsurplus.com then on the right side select California as the region, then West Valley

Mission CCD as the agency.

Post an Ad! Getting rid of art stuff? Need a studio or studio mates? Need a used whatchamacallit or thingamabob for that next sculpture? Email a description to the editor to include in the next newsletter. Include a photo of items offered.

Dear Member,

Congratulations to all who participated in the first International Sculpture Day!

For me, this was an extra special event: Due to several pressing matters during the last two years I was creating new works but did not have the energy or inclination to exhibit them. Exhibiting again and hearing feedback about the pieces was a thrill, and I now feel I am off to a fresh start.

Moreover, this got me thinking about our annual December holiday party and its pop-up art show. I would like your feedback: I am considering hosting a month-long PRS show in my studio space (its exhibition space is being enlarged), open to the public and featuring small works by PRS members, with works offered for sale and with a percentage of sales going to benefit PRS. In addition to benefiting PRS this could help us to establish a regular show in San Francisco, which has been impossible due to prohibitively expensive rents for exhibition spaces.

What do you think? Participation would involve a commitment to contribute a piece for exhibition and sale with fractional or total donation of proceeds, and likely a small commitment of volunteer time to staff the show during busiest hours, including scheduled receptions.

Let me know what you think . . . I'm already thinking of possible themes fitting the dense urban needs of San Francisco . . . "Folds Flat for Storage" ? "12x12x12" ? Other?

On another matter, please welcome Leslie Plato Smith, our new contributing editor. Thank you for volunteering your skills, Leslie!

As always, I hope you enjoy this issue of your newsletter.
